

THE FRIENDS OF HERTFORD MUSEUM

TIMETABLE OF FORTHCOMING MEMBER MEETINGS (LECTURES AND OTHER EVENTS)

DATE, TIME AND VENUE	LECTURE MEETING	OTHER MEETING/EVENT
Tuesday 19 February 2019 8 pm at the St Andrew's Centre	Bill Church: Seeing the Wood for the Trees Bill Church is a solicitor who worked in local government, latterly at Hertfordshire County Council where he was County Secretary. In retirement he serves as Assistant Priest at Hertford St Andrew and Hertingfordbury St Mary. Trees are a special interest of his.
Saturday 2 March 2019 7.30 pm at the Sele Farm Community Centre		Quiz Night
Tuesday 19 March 2019 8 pm at the St Andrew's Centre	AGM, followed by Jean Riddell: Curiosities of Hertford Jean Riddell is a retired school teacher and a former trustee of the Museum. She is a local historian and the author of a number of books on different aspects of Hertford's past.	Annual General Meeting
Tuesday 16 April 2019 8 pm at the St Andrew's Centre	Richard Darby: Ward Beadles of the City of London Richard Darby is the Mace Bearer to Hertford Town Council. He has a formidable knowledge of the City of London and its history.
Friday 10 May 2019 7 pm or 7.30 pm (precise time TBA) at St Andrew's Church		The Ann Kirby Memorial Lecture, by Dr Mervyn Miller: Sir Edwin Lutyens : Architect of Wit and Grandeur Dr Mervyn Miller is an Architect, Town Planner and Historian. He has been a local authority Principal Conservation Officer but for 30 years has been in private practice, with a range of corporate, local authority and individual clients. He is an historical specialist on the Garden City movement and on arts and crafts architects, an author and a Trustee of The Lutyens Trust.

Tuesday 21 May 2019 8 pm at the St Andrew's Centre	Charles Ledsam: My Artistic Clutterbuck Family and Aunt Julia Charles Ledsam became Chairman of FOHM in March 2018. His career was in the insurance industry, latterly on the HR side, and he now works as a consultant Life Coach. He has some interesting family connections, as we shall find out.
Tuesday 18 June 2019 8 pm at the St Andrew's Centre	Marilyn Taylor: Bengo People Marilyn Taylor is a well known resident of Bengo and is its foremost local historian. In recent years she has organised a number of exhibitions about Bengo. By profession a florist, she was Interflorist of the year in 1987.

GSR 11.02.19